Mathäus is a member of our Dispute Resolution Group. His practice covers a broad spectrum of commercial litigation, arbitration and alternative dispute resolution. He focuses on contract and corporate as well as insolvency-related law disputes (including post-M&A matters). He has significant experience in the worldwide strategic defense against coordinated lawsuits and class actions. He further advises on the defense against claims resulting from alleged violations of data protection regulations. His clients include a wide range of enterprises from Germany and abroad.

Mathäus also acts as an arbitrator.
