Press Release

Hengeler Mueller to co-locate in London with Italian Best Friend Bonelli

Hengeler Mueller and its Italian Best Friend Bonelli Erede Pappalardo are jointly moving to a new location in the City of London. As of January 2007, both firms will be located at 30 Cannon Street, EC4.

This move will allow Hengeler Mueller to offer extended services to its clients in London, namely in the field of cross-border M&A, private equity, financing and capital markets.

As well as providing clients, lawyers and staff with enlarged facilities in London, the shared location will allow for wider cooperation between the two Best Friends and other leading independent firms with whom they work in Europe and around the world.
