

HENGELERMUELLER

Deal Report

Hengeler advises Cinven on Klöckner Pentaplast sale

The financial investor Cinven has signed an agreement on the sale of Klöckner Pentaplast, a leading manufacturer of rigid plastic films, to Blackstone.

Cinven was advised by Hengeler Mueller in connection with the disposal and by Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in relation to debt financing matters and general legal advice.

Hengeler Mueller Team: Partners Peter Weyland, Georg A. Frowein (both M&A), Alf-Henrik Bischke (Competition) and Dirk Uwer (Regulatory) as well as associates Harald Voigts, Lars Ferenc Freytag, Boris Kasten and Nikolas Hübschen.

Davis Polk & Wardwell (Patrick S. Kenadjian) acted as US counsel on this transaction.

Back in 2001, Hengeler Mueller and Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer had advised Cinven on the acquisition of Klöckner Pentaplast from Klöckner-Werke.

Contact: Keith D. Bain
– PR Manager –
Hengeler Mueller
Partnerschaft von Rechtsanwälten
Bockenheimer Landstrasse 24
60323 Frankfurt
Tel.: 00 49 69 17095-207
Fax: 00 49 69 725773
Email: keith.bain@hengeler.com

3 May 2007