Hengeler Mueller advises on restructuring of Monier Group

Hengeler Mueller has advised the Monier Group, the world's leading provider of building materials for pitched roofs and chimney systems with 11,000 employees, on its financial restructuring. Through the restructuring the current lenders, an international syndicate of more than 100 banks and hedge funds, will become owners of the Group and waive more than half of their receivables.

The Hengeler Mueller team included partners Johannes Tieves and Johannes Adolff as well as associate Timm Fabian Ebner (all Frankfurt).
