Hengeler Mueller advises Eurohypo on restructuring of securitised real estate loan

Eurohypo has restructured the real estate loan securitised through Opera Germany No. 2. The loan is secured on four German shopping centres. One of the first restructurings of a large European CMBS transaction has thus been successfully concluded.

Hengeler Mueller has advised Eurohypo on this restructuring. The Hengeler Mueller team was led by partner Martin M. Geiger (Financing, London) and included partner Ernst-Thomas Kraft (Tax, Frankfurt) as well as associates Mathias Eisen (London) and Bernhard K. Quensel (Frankfurt).

Eurohypo in-house lawyer Detlef Henning worked alongside Hengeler Mueller on this transaction.
