Hengeler Mueller advises HeidelbergCement on liquidity facility

Hengeler Mueller has advised HeidelbergCement AG on the conclusion of a self-arranged liquidity facility in the amount of EUR 3 billion. This has brought to an end the realignment of the company's debt financing that had commenced back in 2009.

The Hengeler Mueller team was led by partner Johannes Tieves and included associates Dirk Reidenbach and Jan Penselin (all Frankfurt).

Responsible for this transaction within HeidelbergCement AG was Norbert Boese.
