

Cecilia Di Ció

Counsel

Frankfurt am Main

T +49 69 17095 946

cecilia.dicio

@hengeler.com

Cecilia practices capital markets law, and has particular experience in advising companies and bank syndicates in a wide variety of equity capital markets transactions. This covers i.a. IPOs (including dual track transactions), capital increases requiring a prospectus, private placements, corporate reorganizations and transactions involving an admission to trading on a stock exchange. Recent transactions on which she has advised include: the Knorr-Bremse IPO (2018), the spin-off and listing of METRO (2017), the merger of Linde and Praxair and the listing of the resulting parent company (2017-2018), the innogy IPO (2016), the EDAG IPO, as well as the planned IPOs of Xella International, CBR Fashion and Douglas (dual track process) (all in 2015), the private placement with stock exchange admission of Hella KGaA Hueck & Co. (2014), a high yield bond issuance by GEA Heat Exchangers in order to support the selling process (stapled financing, 2014), and the planned IPO of Springer Science (dual track process, 2013).

Other transactions in which she has previously been involved include the dual track process of Takko Fashion (IPO Track, 2010), a high yield bond issuance by Phoenix Pharmahandel (2010), the planned IPO of Hochtief Concessions (2009), the IPOs of Homag (2007), Demag Cranes (2006) and Wincor Nixdorf (2004), as well as the spin-off and stock exchange admission of Lanxess (2006) and the capital increase with subscription rights of Pfeiderer (2006).

Career

Admitted to bar in 2014

Abogada (Argentina) since 1998

Attorney-at-Law (New York) since 2001

Solicitor (England and Wales)

Universidad Católica Argentina, Buenos Aires

Columbia University, New York (LL.M.) (2000)

Law firm in Buenos Aires, 1998-1999

Law firm in New York, 2001-2002

Recent Work

Hengeler Mueller advises Linde on Merger with Praxair

Hengeler Mueller advises Knorr-Bremse on IPO

Hengeler Mueller advises BAWAG on its IPO