

Cornelia Gersch

Associate

Berlin

T +49 30 20374 546

cornelia.gersch@hengeler.com

Cornelia advises on matters relating to public law, copyright, art, intellectual property and media law.

Her practice also covers a broad spectrum of litigation. She advises clients in administrative proceedings, in legal disputes as well as in internal investigations.

Career

Admitted to bar 2013

Albert-Ludwigs-University of Freiburg

Université de Genève

Humboldt-University of Berlin

Queen Mary University of London (LL.M.)

Recent Work

Hengeler Mueller successfully represents Vodafone in claim for cable network feed-in fees against Arte

Hengeler Mueller advises Tele Columbus on agreement with VG Media in the dispute over copyright licensing conditions for cable retransmission

Publications

Cultural Heritage in Danger – Illegal Excavations and Illegal Trade (Conference Report), published by Prussian Cultural Heritage Foundation; German Archaeological Institute; German Association for Archeology, Berlin, 2015, translated by Foreign Office

10 Jahre Deutsch-Russischer Museumsdialog, Forschungen und Perspektiven (Tagungsbericht), Kulturstiftung der Länder (Hrsg.), Berlin [2016] (in German)

Über Geschmack lässt sich streiten – zur urheberrechtlichen Schutzfähigkeit von Geschmack –, KUR 6/2018, 168 ff. (mit Dr. Jan Krusche) (in German)