HENGELER MUELLER

Daniel Wiegand
Partner

Munich

T +49 89 383388 416

daniel.wiegand
@hengeler.com

Daniel specializes in M&A transactions for strategic parties and private equity investors. He has a long track record and broad expertise in advising on cross border acquisitions and divestments. His practice is focused on auction processes (buyside and sellside), carve-outs, joint ventures and co-investments (including minority investments)

Daniel has been ranked for more than 15 years with Chambers for Private Equity and Corporate/M&A: High-end capability and has been listed as leading name for Private Equity Transactions by German legal newspaper JUVE.

Career

Admitted to bar 2001

Universities of Bern and Munich (Dr. jur.)

New York University School of Law (LL.M.)

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, 2001-2006

Daniel was recently involved, among other matters, in advising:

- Hapag-Lloyd AG on the acquisition of ZIM Integrated Shipping Services
- Siemens on the sale of the Airport Logistics Business to Vanderlande and the Postal and Parcel Logistics Business to Körber
- Waterland Private Equity on the acquisition of the LifeFit Fitness Group from Oaktree Capital, the acquisition of Bode – Die Tür from Schaltbau AG and the acquisition of a majority stake in Condio GmbH
- Knorr-Bremse AG on the sale of its HVAC business to Open Gate Capital
- CVC Capital Partners in the contemplated marketing partnership with DFL / participation in the Bundesliga media rights
- BOGNER on the sale of a majority stake to Katjes International
- Capvis Equity IV on the sale of the B2B-platform operator Visable to Alibaba and the sale of the Hennecke Group to Brückner
- Waterland Private Equity on the sale of the Exercite Group to TA Associates/Warburg Pincus
- Advent International and Warburg Pincus on the acquisition of the BioPharma Solutions Business from Baxter
- EPH on the acquisition of LEAG and further transactions
- Morellato on the acquisition of CHRIST Juweliere
- LEONI on the sale of the divisions Industrial Cable Solutions and Automotive Cable Solutions
- Waterland Private Equity on the partnership with the consulting group Horn&Company and various add-on acquisitions