HENGELER MUELLER

Daniel Wiegand

Partner

Munich

T +49 89 383388 406

daniel.wiegand @hengeler.com

Daniel specializes in M&A transactions for strategic parties and private equity investors. He has a long track record and broad expertise in advising on national and cross border acquisitions and divestments, in particular in the MidCap segement. His practice is focused on auction processes (buyside and sellside), carve-outs, joint ventures and co-investments (including minority investments)

Daniel has been ranked for 14 years with Chambers for Private Equity and Corporate/M&A: High-end capability and has been listed as leading name for Private Equity Transactions by German legal newspaper JUVE.

Daniel was recently involved, among other matters, in advising:

Waterland on the acquisition of the LifeFit Fitness Group from Oaktree Capital

CVC Capital Partners in the contemplated marketing partnership with der DFL / participation in the Bundesliga media rights

Capvis Equity IV on the sale of the B2B-platform operator Visable to Alibaba

Waterland on the sale of the Exercite Group to TA Associates/Warburg Pincus

Advent International and Warberg Pincus on the acquisition of the BioPharma Solutions Business from Baxter EPH on the contemplated acquisition of STEAG Morellato on the acquisition of CHRIST Juweliere LEONI on the sale of the divisions Industrial Cable Solutions and Automotive Cable Solutions

Waterland Private Equity on the partnership with the consulting group Horn&Company and various add-on acquisitions

Siemens on the sale of the Postal and Parcel Logistics Business to Körber

Career

Admitted to bar 2001 Universities of Bern and Munich

(Dr. jur.)

New York University School of Law (LL.M.)

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, 2001-2006