Joachim has been advising on M&A and corporate matters for more than 20 years. He works for international and domestic industry clients, ranging from family companies to stock listed corporations.

Joachim has a broad experience in public takeovers and defense situations. In private M&A, Joachim advises on acquisitions and joint ventures on the buy-side as well as on the sell-side (including auction proceedings).

On a regular basis, Joachim advises clients in the Nordic Region as well as the US, and over the past years he has advised many clients from those areas on transactions in Germany or Europe.

In the corporate law field, Joachim frequently advises boards of German companies (e.g. on executive contracts, executive compensation, dismissal cases, board coaching etc.), but he also works on corporate restructurings.
