Matthias advises on tax matters primarily in connection with transactions (M&A, corporate reorganizations, financing, restructuring, succession). His clients include companies, financial investors, and entrepreneurs both domestically and abroad. Further focus areas of his practice include tax compliance, assistance during tax audits, and tax litigation proceedings.

Matthias is listed in prominent positions in leading legal rankings. JUVE ranks him among the "leading names in transaction tax law" and lists him as a frequently recommended lawyer in the areas succession, wealth and foundations ("brilliant tax lawyer", "dogmatically strong," competitors).
