

Thomas Lang

Partner

Frankfurt am Main

T +49 69 17095 646

thomas.lang

@hengeler.com

Thomas advises on M&A transactions, particularly in real estate, and on corporate matters and represents corporate clients as well as private equity and other financial investors.

A particular focus of his corporate advise is the preparation of shareholders' meetings as well as capital and other structural measures.

He is admitted as a notary public with office in Frankfurt and covers the full spectrum of notarial services, especially in real estate and corporate law.

Career

Admitted to bar 2012

Notary (office in Frankfurt)

Philipps University of Marburg (Dr. iur.)

University of New York (LL.M.)

University of East Anglia, Norwich

Recent Work

Hengeler Mueller advises KKR on the acquisition of a majority stake in Velero AG together with a residential portfolio

Hengeler Mueller advises Blackstone on the acquisition of a logistics portfolio from Castlake and Melcombe

Hengeler Mueller advises LEG on acquisition of more than 6,000 apartments from Deutsche Wohnen

Publications

The Real Estate Law Review, Nevin (Ed.), 10th Edition 2020, country report Germany (together with Dr. Jan Bonhage)

Corporate Governance nach der Finanz- und Wirtschaftskrise: Vorbilder und Ziele eines modernen Wirtschaftsrechts, Tübingen (Mohr Siebeck), 2011 (Hrsg. zus. mit C. Allmendinger, F. Dorn, S. Lumpp, F. Steffek)

Immaterialgüterrechtliche Lizenzierung und kartellrechtliche Verhaltenskontrolle, Frankfurt am Main (Lang), 2009 (zugl. Diss.)