HENGELER MUELLER

Elisabeth Bogomolni

Associate

Berlin

T +49 30 20374 775

elisabeth.bogomolni@hengeler.com

Elisabeth advises and represents domestic and international clients from the communication, technology and media sectors. In particular, she advises companies on all aspects of German and European antitrust and competition law, media law, as well as information technology law.

A particular focus of Elisabeth's work is platform regulation. She represents companies in legal disputes before state and European courts as well as the European Commission and in out-of-court dispute resolution.

Career

Admitted to bar 2024

Visiting Lecturer at FU Berlin since 2025

Attorney-at-Law (New York)

New York university School of Law (LL.M.)

Humboldt University of Berlin (Lecturer)

Humboldt University of Berlin

Publications

Tackling Big Tech in the United States and the European Union – A Comparison of the DMA and the CALERA, in NYU Journal for International law and Politics, 54 N.Y.U. J. Int'l & Pol. 235 (2021) 10 Feb. 2022

Urteilsanmerkung zu BVerfG, Beschluss vom 29. Juni 2016 – 1 BvR 2646/15 (gemeinsam mit Lola Peters)