Pascal Brandt has a broad practice focussing on capital markets, banking and regulatory issues.

He particularly advises companies and banks in a wide variety of capital markets transactions. This covers IPOs, capital increases requiring a prospectus and private placements with admission to trading on a stock exchange, but also issuances of hybrid bonds.

On banking and regulatory issues, Pascal Brandt advises domestic and foreign banks and financial services institutions as well as asset managers on matters relating to investment and banking regulatory law, payment services and securities regulation.
