

Rebecca Klein

Senior Associate

Düsseldorf

T +49 211 8304 0

rebecca.klein

@hengeler.com

Rebecca is a lawyer who specialises in public law, focussing her practice on regulated industries primarily in the energy sector.

She provides comprehensive advice to German and international companies and investors on matters relating to energy law, specifically on complex regulatory questions, M&A transactions involving energy regulation and infrastructure and transformation projects in regulated environments. She also represents her clients in proceedings before public authorities and in legal disputes.

Rebecca is especially devoted to handling matters concerning renewable energy, the energy transition and decarbonisation.

Career

Admitted to bar 2019

Universities of Freiburg and Konstanz

Trinity College Dublin